§ 308.107

- (2) Any such order shall provide that each party shall, upon request, have the same right of oral cross-examination (or redirect examination) as would exist had the witness testified orally rather than through a written statement. Such order shall also provide that any party has a right to call any hostile witness or adverse party to testify orally.
- (b) Scheduling of submission of written testimony. (1) If written direct testimony and exhibits are ordered under paragraph (a) of this section, the administrative law judge shall require that it be filed within the time period for commencement of the hearing, and the hearing shall be deemed to have commenced on the day such testimony is due
- (2) Absent good cause shown, written rebuttal, if any, shall be submitted and the oral portion of the hearing begun within 30 days of the date set for filing written direct testimony.
- (3) The administrative law judge shall direct, unless good cause requires otherwise, that—
- (i) All parties shall simultaneously file any exhibits and written direct testimony required under paragraph (b)(1) of this section; and
- (ii) All parties shall simultaneously file any exhibits and written rebuttal required under paragraph (b)(2) of this section.
- (c) Failure to comply with order to file written testimony. (1) The failure of any party to comply with an order to file written testimony or exhibits at the time and in the manner required under this section shall be deemed a waiver of that party's right to present any evidence, except testimony of a previously identified adverse party or hostile witness. Failure to file written testimony or exhibits is, however, not a waiver of that party's right of cross-examination or a waiver of the right to present rebuttal evidence that was not required to be submitted in written form.
- (2) Late filings of papers under this section may be allowed and accepted only upon good cause shown.

§ 308.107 Document discovery.

(a) Parties to proceedings set forth at §308.01 of the Uniform Rules and as provided in the Local Rules may obtain

- discovery only through the production of documents. No other form of discovery shall be allowed.
- (b) Any questioning at a deposition of a person producing documents pursuant to a document subpoena shall be strictly limited to the identification of documents produced by that person and a reasonable examination to determine whether the subpoenaed person made an adequate search for, and has produced, all subpoenaed documents.

Subpart C—Rules of Practice Before the FDIC and Standards of Conduct

§308.108 Sanctions.

- (a) General rule. Appropriate sanctions may be imposed when any counsel or party has acted, or failed to act, in a manner required by applicable statute, regulations, or order, and that act or failure to act:
- (1) Constitutes contemptuous conduct;
- (2) Has in a material way injured or prejudiced some other party in terms of substantive injury, incurring additional expenses including attorney's fees, prejudicial delay, or otherwise;
- (3) Is a clear and unexcused violation of an applicable statute, regulation, or order; or
- (4) Has unduly delayed the proceeding.
- (b) Sanctions. Sanctions which may be imposed include any one or more of the following:
- (1) Issuing an order against the party;
- (2) Rejecting or striking any testimony or documentary evidence offered, or other papers filed, by the party;
- (3) Precluding the party from contesting specific issues or findings;
- (4) Precluding the party from offering certain evidence or from challenging or contesting certain evidence offered by another party;
- (5) Precluding the party from making a late filing or conditioning a late filing on any terms that are just; and
- (6) Assessing reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by any other party as a result of the improper action or failure to act.
- (c) Limits on dismissal as a sanction.

 No recommendation of dismissal shall
